

THE EL PASO TIMES—El Paso's HOME Newspaper

Kaleidoscope

By LOUISE MAXON

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gnauck will return Sunday from a fall vacation in the South Pacific, where it is springtime. They began the tour with sight-seeing in Hawaii, then went on to Nandi and Suva in the Fiji Islands. Sidney, Australia, was another point of interest in the extensive tour.

* * *

Lt. (j.g.) Rick Eason is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Eason, after receiving his wings as a Navypilot in Corpus Christi, Tex. Sept. 25. His mother pinned his wings on during the traditional ceremony. Also attending were Mr. Eason, Rick's sister, Sharon, and Miss Billie Burtner. Lt. Eason will report to Meridian, Miss., where he will be an instructor. Mr. and Mrs. Eason attended the Order of Eastern Star Grand Chapter of Texas session in Houston before returning to El Paso.

* * *

Among El Paso women who will be hostesses to friends at the Woman's Symphony Committee luncheon and style show Wednesday in El Paso Country Club are Mrs. L. A. Scott and Mrs. Paul Thomas, who will have 10 guests; Mrs. Wycliffe R. Curtis, 10 guests; Mrs. Paul Heisig, eight and Mrs. Ira Budwig, eight. Smaller parties are being planned by Mrs. Tony Lama Jr., Mrs. William Ikard, Mrs. A. D. Torres, Mrs. W. A. D. Heer, Mrs. Glen McKinney and Mrs. Henry Horwitz. There will be a number of no-host tables and reservations may be made through Tuesday. Fall and holiday fashions from the Popular will be shown by committee members and store models.

* * *

Mrs. Helen Boatwright, guest soloist for the El Paso Symphony Association opening concert Monday night, was honored at a small dinner party in the Empire Club by long-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sipiora. Other guests included Orlando Barera, symphony conductor and Mrs. Barera; Dr. Russell Deter, president of El Paso Symphony Orchestra Association; Gus Bianche, symphony manager, and Mrs. Bianche.

* * *

Assistance League of El Paso will sponsor a display of party tables, "Las Mesas Magnificas," from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Oct. 19 in First Presbyterian Church. The public is invited to attend and tickets will be available from league members or at the door. Mrs. J. L. Smothers is league president. Proceeds will be used for the local project, "Operation School-bell," which provides clothing for needy school children. Mrs. Buford Williams is chairman of the benefit event. Mrs. Sidney Howard is in charge of the boutique committee, which will show gift items for sale and Mrs. J. A. Taylor is chairman of homemade mints, which will also be for sale.

* * *

Mrs. Edward Wilder is making an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Randle of La Mesa, after a visit in Hawaii with Capt. Wilder, who is serving a tour of duty in Vietnam. Mr. and Mrs. Randle have recently returned from a visit with another daughter, Mrs. Jack Wagner, and family, in Ryegate, Mont.

* * *

More than 100 guests attended the Beautify El Paso Association reception for new members this week in the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gale, 811 Rim. Association President Andy Cohen, Mrs. Cohen and Mrs. Gale received guests with the Association Sun Duchess Peggy Mangan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mangan, and Miss Marjorie Graham. Others assisting were Mrs. G. Ralph Meyer, Mrs. Malcolm Welch, past president; Mrs. Charles True, Mrs. Malcolm McGregor, Mrs. J. Burges Perrenot, Mrs. William J. Reynolds, Mrs. Charles Christensen, Mrs. Paul Heisig, Mrs. Jack Jagoe, Mrs. Joe Battle, Mrs. Hollis Brown, Mrs. Maurice Schwartz, Mrs. Camille Craig, Mrs. Joseph Walton, past president; Mrs. George Kistenmacher, Mrs. M. G. McKinney, Mrs. Harold Sheldon, Mrs. Douglas McGregor, Mrs. Grace Hamrick and Mrs. C. H. Fernstrom.

* * *

Mrs. Edward Neal, the former Nancy Gruver of Las Cruces, N.M. is working toward a master's degree at Eastern Washington State, Cheney, Wash., where she has a fellowship. Mrs. Neal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gruver of Las Cruces, is playing with the Spokane Symphony Orchestra this season. Mr. Neal, a senior art major at EWS, and Mrs. Neal reside in Spokane and commute to Cheney.