Andy Cohen and Dorrance Roderick have joined forces in sponsoring jointly the Hon. Robert E. Lee Parker, mayor and chief of police of Toyah, Texas in his campaign here for the Shrine ring. Harry B. Lang, El Paso automobile dealer, opposing Parker, has the backing of Fred Bunsen, Sam Watkins, Frank Klohs, Mayor R. E. Thomason and others.

Finding the sunny side to the depression, The Times observed editorially that now that Chicago has nickel bread, lowest price for a 16-ounce loaf since 1896, "there may be hope now for the return of the good five-cent cigar of pleasant if ancient memory."
