

CLUB HOUSE MAN, EMERITUS, at Connie Mack Stadium is "Unk Russell" (Russell Henry). "Unk" started with the Phillies at Baker Bowl in 1925, moved to the "new home" with the club in 1938.

TWO OTHER BELOVED FIXTURES working their last night at the old ballpark are Denny Gavaghan (left), operating the auxiliary scoreboard, and Jim Davis, press box custodian. Gavaghan, 70, has been on the job since 1945, kept score for the old A's, and saw the first game in Connie Mack in 1909—the "last inning when I ducked in as a school kid." Davis, 67, started in 1925, earlier served as usher and grounds-keeper.

Daily News Photo by W. R. Everly 3d

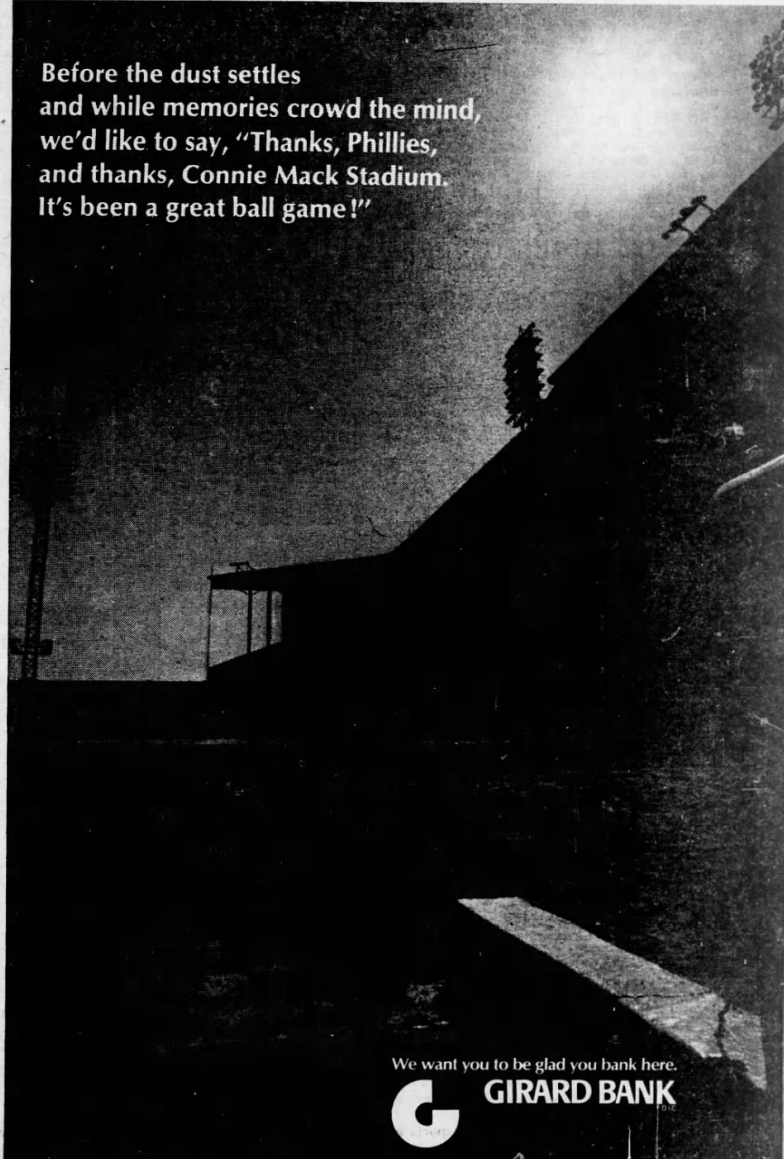

An Ode to Old Connie Mack Stadium

By STAN HOCHMAN

(With apologies to David Frishberg and Van Lingle Mungo, this farewell song to Connie Mack Stadium.)

Solly Hemus, Dick Attreau,
Del Ennis, Claude Passeau;
Stu Miller, Chuck Hiller . . . and Pancho Herrera.
Andy Cohen, Bo Belinsky,
Ryne Duren, Greg Luzinski;
Blix Donnelly, Gene Conley . . . and Pancho Herrera.
Milo Candini, Tex Kraus,
Ted Kazanski, Billy Klaus,
George Myatt, Whitlow Wyatt . . . and Pancho
Herrera.
Glenn Gorbous, Tom Qualters,
Gene Freese, Bucky Walters;
Jack Rowa, Larry Bowa . . . and Pancho Herrera.
Jimmy Dykes, Tris Speaker,
Waite Hoyt, Ralph Meeker,
Eddie Stack, Connie Mack . . . and Pancho Herrera.
Sam Chapman, Ferris Fain,
Barney McCloskey, Sammy Cain,
Justin Stein, Chuck Klein . . . and Pancho Herrera.
Bing Miller, Nelson Potter,
Nick Eitten, Ed Cotter,
Charles Pick, Elmer Ellick and Pancho Herrera.
Eddie Joost, Bubba Church,
Carl Scheib, Barry Lersch,
Briscoe Lord, Horace Ford . . . and Pancho Herrera.
Joe Koppe, Earl Naylor,
Ted Lepcio, Tony Taylor,
Dario Lodigiani, Johnny Podgagny . . . and Pancho
Herrera.
Buddy Rosar, Milt Stock,
Pete Suder, Bobby Locke,
Hermann Fink, Harry Hannebrink . . . and Pancho
Herrera.
Wayne Ambler, Bill Clay,
Bill Werber, Pinky May,
Mickey Finn, John Quinn and Pancho Herrera.
Bobby Shantz, Reggie Grabowski,
Eddie Joost, Bob Sadowski,
Roy Harrell, Dick Farrell . . . and Pancho Herrera.
Willie Jones, Jim Hegan,
Danny Murtaugh, Ed Keegan,
Ernie Koy, Luther Roy . . . and Pancho Herrera.
Wally Post, John Morris,
Cal McLish, Leo Norris,
Pat Murray, Tony Curry . . . and Pancho Herrera.
Jimmy Foxx, Al Nixon,
Joe Dugan, Murry Dickson,
Clyde Smoll, Gary Kroll . . . and Pancho Herrera.
Lefty Grove, Jack Spring,
George Earnshaw, Lee King,
Russ Derry, Charley Berry . . . and Pancho Herrera.
(To be sung at Quinn's Tavern, with sawdust sprinkled on the floor and some guy squeezing an accordion for accompaniment.)

Before the dust settles
and while memories crowd the mind,
we'd like to say, "Thanks, Phillies, and thanks, Connie Mack Stadium.
It's been a great ball game!"

We want you to be glad you bank here.

