

Married in Catatonk

St. Francis Roman Catholic Church of Catatonk was the setting for the wedding of Miss Paula S. Fidurski and George J. Welch.

The Nuptial Mass was celebrated by the Rev. James Keleher, the Rev. Ronald Harley and the Rev. Matthew Sidura.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fidurski of Owego are the parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Welch of Elmira.

Escorted by her father to an altar decorated with bouquets of gladioli, the bride wore a lace over linen gown featuring a high rolled collar, long puffed sleeves and a cathedral-length train.

Matrons of honor were Mrs. Francis Maguire and Mrs. Patrick O'Donnell. They wore floor-length gowns of pink floral print fashioned with square necklines and long puffed sleeves. Each wore a matching picture hat with daisy trim and carried a cascade of carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Andrew Cohen, sister of the bride; Mrs. John Fidurski, sister-in-law of the bride; Miss Maureen Welch, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Pamela Thurber and Miss Karen Lindquist. They were attired in yellow print gowns styled like those of the honor attendants.

Nieces of the bride, Miss Maureen Maguire and Miss Susan Fidurski, were flower girls.

—Delmar Studio by Frank Saraceno.

MRS. WELCH

Joseph Welch served as best man for his brother. Ushering were Martin Hehrick, cousin of the bridegroom, Thomas Nolan, Bart O'Brien, Richard Costello and C. Lawrence Alder.

The new Mrs. Welch was graduated from Cornell University. Her husband is a graduate of St. Bernard's College and Seminary of Rochester. He is studying for a master's degree at Elmira College and is employed by the Elmira school system.