

Miners Learn One Inning Is Not Game

Andy Cohen's University of Texas at El Paso baseball team got on the scoreboard five times in the third inning yesterday. Unfortunately for the Orange that one outburst was five more tallies than UTEP produced in the other eight innings combined.

After erasing a 3-0 deficit with that five run frame the Miners eventually dropped a 7-5 decision to Denver University in Dudley Field. The setback was the second in two games against Denver and dropped UTEP's record to 7-6 on the year with a 1 p.m. twinbill against Northern Colorado on tap today in Dudley's limited confines.

THE MINERS just couldn't stand prosperity yesterday. Although homeplate has been in the same place for 102 years righthander Mike Kruta couldn't seem to find in four and two-thirds innings of pitching. Krute issued eight bases on balls while allowing six hits and five earned runs. Little southpaw Mike Hilton relieved Kruta in the fifth and wound up the loser, allowing runs six and seven in the last two innings.

A two-run double by Cohen's cleanup hitter, hefty Bob Downing, highlighted the Miners' third. Mark Miller singled home a run and scored in the inning which was aided by two Denver throwing errors.
