

Miner Sluggers Just Need Time

By PETE CICCARELLI

It's been taking the University of Texas at El Paso baseball team anywhere from three to seven innings to "get the lead out" of their aluminum bats but when the Orange finally do "unlimber the timber," look out!

Rallies of five and three runs proved too much for New York's Baruch College yesterday as UTEP posted a 12-7 triumph for it's sixth win in a row. Per usual, a minimum crowd braved Dudley Field's - near-perfect weather to observe the slugfest.

The second of three games in the series at Dudley was played at 2 p.m. today.

PERHAPS taking scent of any anticipated selection in the upcoming professional baseball draft in June second baseman, Mark Miller continued to wage the leading thrust in the offense. Ramming out a homer, triple and single in five appearances Miller drove in three runs and scored two while raising his season norm to .333 with 13 runs batted in out of the No. 2 slot in the order.

"Mark's leadership and overall play is aiding this club no end," Miner coach Andy Cohen observed. "We're hitting the ball just great and if the pitching comes around, well we just might do some damage in the Western Athletic Conference." UTEP is now 14-7 on the year.

IF THE pitching staff were to come around as well as righthanded reliefer Tony Medellin's sinker Cohen wouldn't be whistling in the dark. Medellin entered the contest after starter Sam Cox weakened in the fifth and (pardon the pun) Baruch went "ba-roke" the rest of the way.

The Miners put the game on ice with a five run fifth inning uprising and three more tallies two frames later.
