

Lose to Arizona 2200 Crowd Gives Miners Stage Fright

TUCSON, Ariz. — Andy Cohen's University of Texas at El Paso baseball team ran into insurmountable odds here yesterday — 11 runs and 2,200 fans.

Playing before their largest audience of the season the Orange broke to an early 2-0 lead when second sacker Mark Miller rammed his sixth homerun of the year over the wall in rightfield with one out and David Nance on first in the third, at Hi-Corbett Field.

RIGHTY ROY Stringer, 6-0 until yesterday's setback, stymied the Wildcats, now 41-2, until the fifth when three consecutive walks provided the impetus for a 10 run salvo that subdued any UTEP hopes. Rightfielder Scott Norris had the big hit in the frame, a long home run with two mates aboard off reliever Dan Medellin. The homer was Norris' seventh of the year.

The victory was Arizona's 20th straight, Jerry Kindall's club is now 4-0 in Western Athletic Conference play. The Miners dropped their 14th against 20 20 wins but saw their WAC mark drop to 1-3.
