

Lose 3-2 Game— Catch by ASU Strong Helps Beat Miners

Special to The Herald-Post

TEMPE, Ariz.—With two runners on base in the first inning, Bob Downing of the U.T. El Paso Miners lifted a long fly to left field.

Coach Andy Cohen of the Miners figured it was going to be a homerun and his team would have a 3-0 lead over the vaunted Arizona State Sun Devils.

The ASU outfielder, Garrett Stong, spoiled Andy's dream and caught the ball for the third out. It was an outstanding catch.

THE SUN DEVILS won 3-2 in the Western Athletic Conference opener of a series here that drew 2,379 fans.

"That catch was the difference in the game," Cohen said. "But at least we made Arizona State respect us. I felt good about the effort of my players."

Roy Stringer, ace of the Miner staff, went the distance despite the fact that he had a sore shoulder and was not expected to work.

DAVID NANCE led the Miners in hitting with a single and double. He drove in both Miner runs in the seventh with a double.

Two games were slated today, one in the afternoon and one at night.
