

Andy Will Go After Experience

"I'm going to try and get some experience for next season," Andy Cohen said Saturday after his University of Texas at El Paso baseball team closed out the 1974 season with a twinbill loss to New Mexico at Dudley Field, 6-2 and 8-3.

"We're losing some experience from a team that wasn't all that experienced to begin with," the Miner coach admitted. "I'll miss Herbie Von Hagen and Mark Miller if he turns pro. We started well this year but just couldn't handle Western Athletic Conference play as well as I'd hoped."

completed a six game sweep of their season series with the Orange. UTEP concluded the year 24-27 overall and 2-16 in the WAC.

Saturday Bob Knox suffered the opening game setback to drop his season mark to 3-4. Dan Modlinski hurled the second game and suffered his sixth loss in nine decisions.

"Overall I think we had some streaks where we played pretty good baseball," Cohen admitted. "But I just wish we could have won three more and been a .500 ballclub."
