up seven birdies with none of them coming on par 5 holes.

"My iron play was good and my putting excellent," said Watson. "I've worked on my putting quite a bit since I've been here. They are excellent greens."

Steelers Open Camp for Rookies

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League will open a three-day rookie camp at Three Rivers Stadium today with 40 first-year players expected to participate in the weekend workouts.

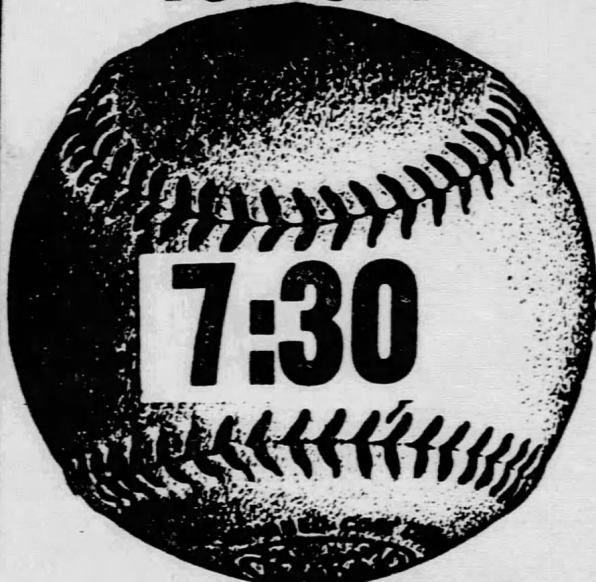

two strokes back at 67 while six golfers were knotted at 68.

Wadkins, a former Wake Forest star who won $200,000 last year but has failed to make the cut in five of his last seven tournaments, had one of the most erratic rounds of the day, scoring par on just six holes.

Wadkins was 5-under par after nine holes but three-putted to bogey the 11th and then had to settle for a double bogey after placing his drive in the woods on the 441-yard 12th hole.

"I hit it kinda ratty on the back nine," said Wadkins. "I really worked my tail off for a 69."
