

HONORED—Saul Kleinfeld is shown in his acceptance talk after being honored as the sportsman of the year at Temple Mount Sinai last night. Shown with Saul are his wife and Andy Cohen, master of ceremonies.

Kleinfeld's 'Oscar' Well Received in E.P.

Saul Kleinfeld's honor as the "Sportsman of the Year" was well received in El Paso today.

El Paso's "Barnum" was properly applauded at the Mount Sinai's annual sportsmen's banquet last night. Everyone agrees it couldn't have happened to a more deserving recipient.

SAUL, KNOWN as the leading El Paso baseball, basketball, softball, bowling and golf promoter in El Paso, and noted for his contributions to the happiness and welfare of underprivileged groups, was given the "Oscar" last night at Mt. Sinai.

Andy Cohen, master of ceremonies, made the presentation after Gene Autry made the principal speech.

Kleinfeld was joined by his wife and son Joe on the stage.

SPECIAL AWARDS were given to Chuck Hughes and Charley West of the UTEP football team; Orsten Artis, member of the NCAA basketball champion Miners, and Tom Rush, school principal who has been prominent in youth athletics.

It was practically Sun Kings night with Rocky Bridges, the new manager, making a speech in addition to Autry's talk. Other Sun Kings officials were introduced.

A capacity crowd of 400 attended.

Zimmer Manager At Knoxville

United Press International
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 19.

— The Knoxville Smokies of the Class AA Southern League named Don Zimmer, a former major league infielder, as manager for the 1967 season.

Zimmer, who began his career in 1949 with the Brooklyn Dodgers, played with five major league teams before going to the Japanese league last season.

High Matmen Meet Tonight

Second round of the City Invitational Wrestling tournament is set for Andress High School at 7:30 today.

The grapplers from 15 schools in New Mexico and Texas start-

Fight Results

United Press International
LONDON, Jan. 19. — Lloyd Marshall, 131½, Newark, N.J., knocked out Maurice Cullen, 137, England (9).

ST. PAUL, Minn. — Jim Beattie, 244, St. Paul, outpointed Ed Hurley, 200, Minneapolis (10).

SCRANTON, Pa. — Jerry Tomasetti, 202, Dunmore, Pa., stopped Len Smith, 178, Brooklyn, N.Y. (3).