

UF Gives Awards, Elects Officers

Hundreds of awards were presented to individuals and companies last night during the annual business meeting of the United Fund of El Paso and El Paso County held at the Hotel Paso del Norte.

The two top awards were the President's Plaque presented by newly-elected president Leonard A. Goodman Jr., to outgoing president E. Ray Lockhart and the Chairman's Plaque presented by Mr. Lockhart to John Lattin.

LEADERSHIP medallions for successfully running divisions in the campaign were presented to Mike Brumbelow, W. T. Barnhouse, Fred Wendt, Al Vaughan, Tony Ponce, Homer Dale and Mrs. Stephen Kent. Others not present to receive the awards included Edgar Griggs, Pete McDaniel and Harold Wiggs.

A special medallion plaque was presented Jack Farrell for his photographic assistance to the campaign.

OTHER AWARDS presented for outstanding service went to Mrs. George Finger, Ralph A. Lowenfield Jr., Miss Gertrude A. Goodman, Mrs. C. W. Wakefield, Oliver Nordmarken, Ted Karam, John Davis, Andy Cohen, Jim Jones, Dale Faulkner, Carlos Leon, John Cahill, Randolph Young, Elden Brown, Neil McKenzie, L. H. Rudd, Ken Moreland, William B. Langley, B. Hampton Bowman, Jim Cook, Bill Hudson, Al O'Leary, Wayne Borth, U.S. Army Training Center, Sixth Artillery Group Air Defense, Col. James A. Aleveras, Maj. Charles H. Mayhew, Maj. Neil C. Winston, Lt. Col. George Bryan, David Herzmark and Richard Pruszka. Not present to receive the awards were Mrs. Virginia Turner and Mel Geary.

THE BUSINESS meeting included reports from the large committees, awards presentations and a program emceed by Robert W. Lee featuring the four branches of United Fund in El Paso — Military, Health and Rehabilitation, Family and Child Care, and Youth Services.

Following the meeting elections were held and new officers named to run the United Fund. Filling the vacancy of E. Ray Lockhart as president is Leonard Goodman Jr., with Richard H. Feuille first vice president, James Elliott second vice president, Robert W. Lee third vice president, Lewis Thompson secretary, John Lattin treasurer and Kenneth T. Osman ex-officio.

NOMINATED to the board of directors for three-year terms were Joseph Friedkin, Joe Hoover, E. R. Lockhart, Maj. Gen. George T. Powers III, Gene Roth, Lewis Thompson, Randolph Delk, George V. Janzen and Tom Foster. In addition, W. T. Barnhouse was named to fill the vacancy of Robert H. Palm.

The outgoing treasurer completing his last report to end a 25-year career, E. Guyler Magruder, was named to the Senior Advisory Committee along with A. R. Arnold and H. D. Fulwiler.

