

Miners Have Good Week, Play Highland

Texas Miners seek their 18th and 19th baseball victories of the season this week, meeting New Mexico Highland University Friday and Saturday in single games at Dudley Field. They'll also face a Fort Bliss team in an exhibition preliminary to a game between the Sun Kings and Juarez Indios Wednesday night.

Andy Cohen looked back over last week. It was a good one for the Miners. They won five games, scored a total of 91 runs while holding the opposition to 21 and raised the team batting mark from .278 to .320.

THE MINERS completed the week with 20-1 and 10-3 victories over New Mexico State Saturday. Lynn Hunt won his sixth game against no losses in the opener and Jesse Lujan stretched his record to 5-0 in the second game. The Miners mark is 17-6-1.

Leading batter to date is Danny Blanco with .403, Larry McFarlin is second with .375. John Miller is third with .345. Charlie West is .326, Bobby Aguirre is .313 and Juan Sandoval is .313.
