

967

On Last Trip—

Cohen Has 7 Men In .300 Class

Their home season completed, the Texas Miners hit the road for the final time this weekend to ring down the curtain on the 1967 baseball campaign.

Coach Andy Cohen carries his team on a five-game series which starts tomorrow at Las Vegas when the Miners tangle with New Mexico Highlands starting at 1:30 p.m.

Following the Highlands encounter, the Miners hit the road again for a Saturday date with Denver before moving on to Southern Colorado State for a twin feature Monday and then a single contest Tuesday at Air Force Academy to close the season.

COHEN'S BAND of bombers will put a sizzling 24-8-1 record on the block — best ever in the school's history.

Cohen will have seven .300 hit-