DENVER, May 6. — Andy Cohen brought his Texas Miners here today for a baseball game against Denver University. Denver is Andy's old stomping grounds. He managed the Denver Bears baseball team for a number of years when baseball interest was at its peak here.

Andy is hopeful his Miners will do better than they did yesterday when they lost a 12-4 decision to the Highlands University team of Las Vegas, N.M. Lynn Hunt, the Miners' ace, was shelled in the first. Ralph Ornelas and Bob Geske succeeded him. Paul Schroer went the distance for Highlands and gave up nine hits.
