

Texas Hurler Inks Contract With Winner

WINNER — Richard Moore, a big right handed pitcher from the University of Texas at El Paso, has signed with the Winner Pheasants for the 1968 Basin League season. Moore had a 4-0 record in summer ball last year pitching in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Richard was born in Fort Smith, Ark., but graduated from the Burges High School in El Paso, Texas. He won football, baseball and basketball letters and was captain of the baseball team.

"Spinner" as he is called, played in Little League, Pony League, Colt League, Babe Ruth League and Connie Mack Leagues as well as American Legion ball. His Connie Mack and American Legion teams won state and regional championships.

For Coach Andy Cohen at Texas El Paso, he plays first bases and pitches. He is a pre-dental major at the university. Moore is 6'2", weighs 214 pounds, and is 19 years old.