

Miners Win in Finale; Play Texas Tech Next

Texas Western's late inning charge wasn't necessary at Albuquerque yesterday. The Miner defense protected an early four run lead and smothered a ninth inning New Mexico rally to give TWC a 4-3 win. The 11th for the Miners against nine defeats this season.

Ralph Ornelas was relieved by Bill Sanders in the ninth with one out. Sanders threw to two men and put out a Lobo rally.

directed them to seven victories against three defeats last season. The year was climaxed with the Miners' 13-12 victory over Texas Christian in the Sun Bowl.

DOBBS, using the crowd-pleasing pro-style attack that he had success with in the Canadian League, not only had a winning season but Texas Western's attendance and box office receipts soared.

Dobbs and his older brother Glenn first became acquainted with El Paso in the 1942 Sun Bowl game. They were the backfield of man until the ninth," coach Andy Cohen said, "but he began to tire and he walked two and was behind on the batter when I brought Sanders in."

The Miners' first two runs came in the second and third innings on two singles by Wilmer Cruz. In the seventh an inside-the-park homerun by center fielder Charlie West iced the game for the Miners.

ORNELAS opened the rally with a two out single. West then sliced a line drive to right center and "with his great speed, easily stretched it into a four bagger," added Cohen.

West is becoming one of TWC best all-time players.

The Miners will have a 10-day layoff. They meet Texas Tech at Lubbock, April 22 and 23 in a three game series.
