

Advertising Executives To Visit E.P.

Fifty top advertising agency executives and their wives will visit El Paso tomorrow on a one-day air tour of the Southwest.

The visitors will leave Phoenix at 7:30 a.m. and fly to Tuscon for a ranch-style breakfast and tour of the city.

At 11:30 a.m. the group will fly to El Paso. They will be met here by a select committee of El Pasoans. A police escort will take the visitors through Ft. Bliss and over Scenic Drive, down Rim Road to Texas Western College, to the Sun Bowl and then to the El Paso Club for a luncheon.

THEY WILL tour Juarez, and be ready to depart for Albuquerque at 3:30 p.m.

Mayo Seamon, advertising director of the Newspaper Printing Corp., is chairman of the El Paso arrangements committee. He is assisted by Sheldon K. Turner Jr., Karl O. Wyler Sr., Sam Pendleton, Jack McVeigh Sr., and Marty Bauman Jr.

Members of the Host Committee of El Paso Chamber of Commerce are Dick Azar, Andy Cohen, W. T. Barnhouse, Hollis Brown, Jess Hayes, Kaye Burgon, John Davis, Ed Dawkins, Charles C. Gaither, E. Ray Lockhart, D. L. White, Ernie Ponce, Jack Rich, Jack C. Vowell Jr., Seymore Wallace, William J. Wiggins, Roy Wright, N.M. Morrison and Rudolph Miles.
