

Miners End Home Season; Split Pair

Texas Western's baseball team ended its home season schedule today in a double header with New Mexico State after splitting a two game series with the Aggies yesterday in Las Cruces.

In yesterday's 8-6 loss in the first game, the Miners yielded a two run lead in the sixth on two consecutive errors and a homerun by Bob Crosby off starter Bill Sanders. The Aggies were behind after the first inning but held on to their two-run margin and kept the Miners hitless in the final frame.

MINER RELIEF hurler Ken McAnally of Pecos drove in the winning run in the eighth inning of the second game with a two-out single to give Texas Western their 14th win of the season against 10 defeats.

The Miners collected 13 hits in the 8-7 win and survived a last inning drive by the Aggies. Centerfielder Jim Runkle, substituting for Charlie West who was out with a rib injury, made the outstanding catch of the series with a diving, one-handed catch on a low line drive in the fifth inning. Coach Andy Cohen mentioned that it was a turning point of the game and enabled the Miners to stop the big Aggie rally.
