

California Club Buys E.P. Team—

Kings GM Now Sought

California Angels, new owner of the El Paso Club in the Texas League, are expected to appoint a general manager for the Sun Kings next week.

Officials of the Angels said they have been interviewing candidates for the job.

Arrangements were completed yesterday for the Angels to change from sponsor of the Kings to owners of the El Paso club.

IT'S THE SECOND minor league ownership for the Angels. Two years ago they bought the Seattle franchise in the Pacific Coast League. The results of that affiliation, particularly that player development of it, pleased General Manager Fred Haney of the Angels and his staff so well that the yhave taken over the El Paso club.

Mr. Haney said: "It is the consensus of opinion in our organization that the future of minor league baseball will depend on sound ownership with good administration and it is our belief, after our experience in Seattle, that the wonderful group that has operated the Sun Kngs in El Paso will be impressed by our administration leadership and the ultimate results will be better baseball in El Paso, more productiveness for our club in the American League and a stabilizing effect on the Texas League."

MARVIN MILKES, assistant to Haney, and Roland Hemond, farm director, were in El Paso recently discussing the Angels' purchase of the club here for a nominal fee of $1.

Announcement of the sale was made by John Phelan, president of the El Paso Sports Assn., and Haney. H. D. Fulwiler is chairman of the El Paso Sports Assn. Board.

HANEY SAID that the El Paso Sports Assn., will remain intact and provide the local atmosphere the club will need.

It was announced today that Andy Cohen will remain as a coach on the Sun Kings and that Fred Herschleder will continue to be business manager.

One Is Star—

3 Players Dismissed By Wichita

United Press International

WICHITA, Kan. Oct. 25. — Wichita State University coach George Karras said today he has dismissed highly touted Earl Edwards and two other players from the WSU football squad.

Karras said the dismissal was for disciplinary reasons but declined to elaborate.

The three were Edwards, last year's Missouri Valley Conference sophomore lineman of the year; Melvin Cason, a 6-foot, 232-pound junior guard from Moberly, Mo., and Don Cherry, a 6-foot 183-pound tailback.

EDWARDS, a 6-foot-5, 245 pound defensive tackle, had been built up as an All-America candidate. He had been sidelined recently with an ankle injury.

None of the three made the trip to Fayetteville last Saturday for the Shockers game with Arkansas.

One report said the coach chased the three players off the field last Thursday because they were "dogging it."

Wichita State has not won a game in five starts this season.