

3 in Top 10— S. E. C. Rated Higher

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The Southeastern Conference, which is often regarded by the critics for its failure to schedule games with football power schools in the South, still maintains an extremely high prestige with the nation's coaches.

This fact was more apparent than ever today when the weekly United Press International Board of Coaches ranked the SEC schools among the top 10 teams and five listed among the top 20.

Tennessee, which dropped from the top 10 a month ago, returned to the No. 10 position this week after a convincing 36-7 victory over Army last Saturday to join Alabama (No. 4) and Florida (No. 7) among the nation's select.

There was no change among the top four teams this week as Notre Dame continued its strong hold on the No. 1 position by defeating Michigan 23-10 in place of the 35-man UPI board for a total of 32 points.

Michigan State, which will meet the 17th on Nov. 19, held second place by receiving eight first place votes and 33 points while UCLA remained in the third position with two first place votes and 29 points.

The big change was in the No. 5 position. Southern California, which had held that spot as recently as last Friday night, dropped and the place went to the seventh straight victory and replaced the Trojans in the fifth slot.

Nebraska, which scored an important victory over Missouri moved up one notch to sixth while the Gators held on to seventh spot. Arkansas also moved up one place to eighth after a crushing 34-0 victory over Texas A. and M.

Purdue, which suffered a victory over Illinois, moved a step closer to the top by winning one place in the top 10. Southern Methodist and Georgia also moved up one place each to 12th and 13th respectively.

The biggest jump of the week was for Oklahoma to move from nowhere to a tie with Michigan and Houston. The Buffaloes, who made a whirlwind Nebraska two weeks ago, have been rated this high since IMI.

The United Press International Board of Coaches, which met in New York City, ranked the following teams in the top 20:

1. Alabama (4) 2. Michigan (3) 3. Tennessee (2) 4. Florida (2) 5. Southern California (1) 6. Notre Dame (1) 7. Michigan State (1) 8. Arkansas (1) 9. Georgia (1) 10. Texas A. and M. (1) 11. Nebraska (1) 12. Southern Methodist (1) 13. Georgia Tech (1) 14. Texas Tech (1) 15. Oklahoma (1) 16. Houston (1) 17. Purdue (1) 18. Illinois (1) 19. Iowa (1) 20. Wisconsin (1)

N.C. Coach
Won't Leave

CHAPL HILL, N.C., Nov. 1.—North Carolina football coach Phil Hickey denied he was leaving his post to assume the athletic directorship of the University of Connecticut.

Connecticut athletic officials, meanwhile, said they had a vacancy for the job but said a "decision has not been reached" as to who would get the post.

While Hickey denied he was leaving, he did say he would "consider" any possible job offer after the season ends. North Carolina plays its last game Nov. 28 against Virginia.

Holman Recovery
Is About Complete

SAN JOSE, Calif., Nov. 1.—San Jose State will enter Saturday's Idaho clash here as a healthy 100 percent as it has seen all year.

Quarterback Darryl Holman apparently is completely recovered from his back injury and looked effective in yesterday's drill.

The Spartans will spend the week trying to find a running attack and a defense to match their first passing attack.

The Russian Veto
The Russian Olympic basketball team which played two exhibition games in Juárez over the weekend did what was expected to do when he was asked to do something he didn't want to do.

He said "no" just like the Russians say it in the United Nations meetings.

The Russian team didn't have any light-colored jerseys at the Bullring. They had to wear dark jerseys. The Russians were asked to change to their light-colored jerseys. It's been a long-time custom in this country for the home team to wear dark colors and the visitors to wear the whites.

"No," said the Russians.

No. U.S. Official
THERE WAS some discussion over the officials in the Sunday afternoon game between the Russians and the Union Furniture Co. team. The Russians had their own official. The Union said that the other whitebrower be one of their men.

The Communists eagerly borrowed one of the Union's basketballs in practice, saying they didn't have as much money as United States teams had with which to buy equipment.

The suits of the Russian basketballers presumably were Russian made. But it was noticed that they were carrying a brand of a manufacturer in the capitalistic U.S.A.

High Haskins Rating
DON HASKINS, the coach of the UTEP Miners, was an observer in the Sunday afternoon game. He was impressed with the Russian team.

The seven-footers were their desired height. And they have speed, shooting ability and have good passing. "They are very well organized and what impressed me most of all they're a disciplined team," said the coach of the national champion Miners.

The U.S. has never lost a game in the Olympics. The Russians are a bigger menace in the forthcoming games in Mexico City than they have been in any past Olympics. The Yankee team hasn't even been chosen. They have a big head start on the Americans in getting ready for the Mexico games and are touring the country to get acclimated and altitude-nosed. Basketball supremacy in 1968 might shift from the Mississippi to the Volga.

Sun Kings
Longest Practice
Of Year at UTEP

John L. Stanfill, who was business manager of the Spokane club in the Pacific Coast League for the last two seasons, has been named general manager of the Sun Kings next season.

The announcement was made today by the California Angels, who have taken over the ownership of the El Paso club. The new field manager is expected to arrive in the El Paso area early next week.

Stanfill is now being indoctrinated in the Angels baseball operations at Anaheim, Calif. He and his family will move to El Paso about mid-November. He and his wife Pam have a 10-month-old daughter, named Kristen Michelle.

TO GET STANFILL for the El Paso club, the Angels traded their local National League Los Angeles club, the Dodgers, to the Dodgers' parent organization, the Los Angeles Dodgers.
