

Phillies Shook Up

United Press International

It was short and sweet for interim Manager Andy Cohen of the Phillies, who comes down from cloud play today and goes back to the coaching line again.

Cohen waited 30 years for a crack at a major league managing job and when he finally got it, through a strange combination of circumstances, he certainly made the most of it.

Out-hitting Charlie Dressen, he led Philadelphia to a 10-inning, 5-4 victory over Milwaukee Thursday night and if nothing else, Cohen can always say he "retired" as the most successful manager in Phillies' history.

A McGraw Man

In case you've never heard of Cohen, he's the same fellow John McGraw dug up to play second base for the Giants in 1921 when McGraw wanted to give New York fans their first look at a Jewish ball player. Now 55, Cohen was hired as a coach by the Phils this year and was delegated to head the club Thursday night a few hours after Eddie Sawyer suddenly quit as manager.

Cohen knew he was simply a stop-gap until Gene Mauch, the Phillies' new pilot, could join the club from Florida. But he did a job that would have made McGraw proud.

The Braves jumped in front with three runs in the first inning when Hank Aaron slammed a two-run homer and Joe Adcock followed with a solo blast. But the Phils battled back and tied the score at 4-4.

Bobby Del Greco, who had homered earlier, walked to open the 6th and stole second. Jim Coker fled out and Cohen then sent up Ted Lepore to hit for pitcher Don Cardwell, whose homer tied the score in the sixth. Dressen countered by bringing in Bob Gable to relieve Juan Pizarro.

Not to be undone, Cohen replaced Lepore with left-handed hitting John Callahan, who was purposely paced. After all that master-mindful, Joe Koppe singled home the winning run. Alvin Dark of the Phils collected his 2,000th hit when he singled during a three-run sixth.

The Dodgers handed the Cardinals their third straight loss, 3-2; the Cubs inflicted the first defeat of the season upon the Giants, 6-5, and the Pirates crushed the Reds, 13-0.

Gil Hodges drove in the tying run for the Dodgers with a triple in that ninth and then scored the winning one on Bob Delfino's wild pitch. Keith Beyer and Dave Salder each hit homers. Ed Roebuck relieved starter Johnny Podres in the eighth and was the winner. Delfino, the Cards' fourth pitcher, was the loser.

A wind-blown pop fly double by Frank Thomas in the ninth scored Bob Wall with the winning run for the Cubs after the Giants had tied the score at 5-5 on Wayne McCovey's three-run homer in the eighth. Orlando Cepeda and Willie Kirkland also hit homers for the Giants while Frank Hankins hit the eighth grand slam of his career for the Cubs. Don Elston was the winner and Billy O'Dell the loser.
