

COHEN, BEJMA TO PLAY IN OLD-TIMERS GAME

Andy Cohen and Ollie Bejma, two longtime, popular second basemen of Twin Cities professional baseball, will be in the starting lineups of the second annual Saints-Millers Old-Timers Game at Metropolitan Stadium, Tuesday, July 16.

Cohen, who played for the Millers from 1932 to 1939 and saw service with the New York Giants in 1926-28-29, is now baseball coach of the University of Texas-El Paso as well as of El Paso in the Texas League.

Bejma, the American Association's Most Valuable Player in 1938 while a member of the Saints and now an Indiana state employe, also played with St. Paul in 1940-41. Bejma played for the St. Louis Browns from 1934 through 1936 and with the Chicago White Sox in 1939.

Also among the 30 Old-Timers accepting bids were Gene Kelly, Saints' pitcher in 1945-46 who is now Bloomington recreation director, and Lefty Johnson, a Miller hurler-outfielder in 1943 who is now employed as a bartender in Minneapolis.

Boston Red Sox manager Dick Williams, a 1954 Saint, and Boston coach Eddie Popowski, the Millers' last manager in 1960, will be playing managers of the squads which will play a one-hour or three-inning game before the Boston-Minnesota Twins game.
