

Charlie Wagner to Be Here for Baseball Dinner

The program for the 13th annual Baseball Boosters' dinner at the Pick-Nicollet hotel next Monday night was completed today. Charlie Wagner, assistant farm director of the Boston Red Sox, it was announced, will be at the head table representing the Minneapolis Millers' parent club.

Wagner

A 20-game winner for Minneapolis in 1937, Wagner has made frequent visits to Minneapolis in recent years. Last summer he played in the Old Timers' game at Metropolitan stadium.

Other featured guests at the mid-winter affair will be guest of honor Andy Cohen, Bob Shaw, Bill Skowron, Enos Slaughter, Gene Mauch, Ed Doherty and Jack Onslow. Miller manager Mauch will receive the American Association manager of the year for 1959 trophy from league president Doherty.
