

★                      ★                      ★                      ★                      ★

THE BIGGEST SHAKEUP of the managerial front in Southern Association history is indicated for next season . . . Three resignations have left three posts vacant . . . Clyde King quit at Atlanta . . . Ernie White resigned at Nashville, and Andy Cohen at New Orleans . . . Only two managers have been signed . . . Cal Ermer has been signed for his sixth year at Chattanooga and Jo Jo White probably will return at Mobile . . .

The Yankees will work with New Orleans this year and a new pilot will be named . . . Birmingham has switched from the Yankees to the Tigers . . . Memphis has switched from the White Sox to the Cubs and Montgomery has a new working agreement with the Kansas City A's . . . all will have new pilots . . .

Cohen, who has piloted New Orleans the past two years, is the new skipper of the Indianapolis club . . . Charley Metro has signed to return as manager of the Idaho Falls club in the class C Pioneer League. Metro took over the club last year when they were in the cellar and brought them up to third place when the season ended . . .

Frank Skaff, who succeeded Metro at Charleston, W.Va., last year, will return this year . . . The Charleston club finished in sixth place after staying in the cellar most of last year . . .