

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/718148932/>

ARGUMENT GOES FOR NAUGHT—Indianapolis manager Andy Cohen (center) and Indians' centerfielder Jim Landis (10) express a "difference of opinion" with plate umpire B. Kinnamon after Kinnamon called Landis out on strikes to open Thursday night's first game against Wichita at Lawrence Stadium. Landis, the Indians' lead-off batter, claimed that he failed to "go all the way around" on a pitch Kinnamon called a strike.—(Eagle Staff Photo.)

Around the Gridiron Fronts