Foxx Hitting Coach

Their hitters are sure to benefit from the addition of the old time great, Jimmy Foxx, as a coach. Art Schult, Faye Throneberry and Frank Kellert shape up as the long-ball hitters. Pitching stawarts look like Bob Chakales, Ted Bowsfield, Arnold Earley and Tom Borland.

Ben Geraghty, who managed the Braves to the pennant last season, is back at Wichita to work with a whole new crew of prospects for the world champion Milwaukee parent team. Wichita is expected to field the association's youngest team in age and experience.

Denver, winner of the post-season playoffs and the junior world series championship, lost much of the batting power that riddled the opposition last season. But the Bears are minus only one starting pitcher, Ryne Duren. Ralph Houk, 1957 manager has moved up to the New York Yankees. He was replaced by Andy Cohen, last season's manager at Indianapolis who guided Denver to the Western League championship in 1952 and 1954.

Walker Cooper, the National League catching star, has succeeded Cohen at Indianapolis as player-manager. The Red Sox have installed Gene Mauch as manager at Minneapolis along with Foxx as coach. Mauch, Sox player last season, replaced Red Davis.

7 Del Wilber was named to try to break Louisville out of two straight finishes in the cellar. Wilber replaces Dutch Meyer.
