

Miners split, don't play for 16 days

Andy Cohen and his U.T. El Paso Miner baseball team will have a long coffee break.

The 6-8 Miners will be idle for 16 days, next playing New Mexico at Dudley Field April 9 in a Western Athletic Conference game.

The Miners split a twin-bill yesterday against New Mexico State University at NMSU. The Miners won the first game with Jeff Hogan going all the way to get his third victory of the season against no defeats. Phil Rector of the Aggies hit a two-run homer in the sixth to give them a 5-4 victory in the second game. Gary Kobatt was the losing pitcher.

Do you know? . . .

The ancient Greeks played with a toy they called the "diskos," today's yo-yo.
