Miners' Dehn plays 4 spots

Joe Dehn packs a suitcase whenever he goes to the field for U.T.-El Paso's baseball team.

Dehn, a senior from Johnsbury, Ill., got in a little travelling for the Miners yesterday. He played four positions. But his versatility didn't help as UTEP dropped two games to Adams State, 1-0 and 6-2.

HE PLAYED third base for the first time in the initial game. Adams State, 12-11, scored its lone run in the fifth inning when Dave Price doubled home Fred Hook. Winning pitcher Bill Presley allowed just three Miner hits.

Miner coach Andy Cohen shifted Dehn in the night-cap. Dehn started as the designated hitter, trotted Andy Given with a one-over par 71.

Bud McClelland and Geary Bush tied for fourth with 75s. Ray Hibler (77), Steve Young (78), Bruce Duncan (78), Frank Redman (79) and Hardy Lewis (79) were other entrants.

out to center field in the sixth inning when Cohen brought in Bob Alsup to pitch. Dehn was placed on the pitcher's mound in the seventh inning and held Adams State scoreless.

UTEP, now 7-15, plays No. 1 ranked Arizona State this week. The Sun Devils, 44-8, have a 5-1 Western Athletic Conference record.
