

New park not 'home' yet

Andy Cohen experienced the same headache that has bothered Don Haskins—Home isn't "sweet home".

Like the basketball team, U.T.-El Paso's baseball team inaugurated its new campus park with twin losses. Cohen's Miners dropped 9-3 and 4-3 exhibition games to Ranger Junior College.

UTEP's "official" season opener is next Friday against New Mexico Highlands.

"We had good defense," said Cohen, pointing to the team's four double plays, "but we couldn't get the hitting when we needed it."

The Miners had an opportunity to win the second game when they loaded the bases with two out in the bottom of the sixth before the umpires called the game because of darkness.
