

Miners to try 2nd giant-kill

Andy Cohen, coach of the U.T. El Paso baseball team, hopes the Miners' giant-killing has not ended.

And he hopes his team has come down from "Cloud Nine" after the Miners swept a twinbill from Arizona last Saturday 8-3 and 11-6.

The Miners face another Western Athletic Conference powerhouse this weekend. They meet Arizona State, leading the conference and 10th ranked nationally, at Dudley Field in three games.

THEY FACE ASU in a single game at 1 p.m., tomorrow at Dudley Field, and meet the Sun Devils in a twinbill Saturday.

Jerry Walker, hard-luck loser in a 2-1 Arizona win in the series opener last week, will face the Sun Devils tomorrow while David Jannusch and Wes Zotz will pitch Saturday.

Top batter for the Miners is shortstop Rusty Kennedy with an average of .403. Outfielder Bob Alsup is close behind with .395.
