

Miners beat Lobos, cinch winning year

Special to the Herald-Post

ALBUQUERQUE — Coach Andy Cohen and his U.T. El Paso baseball team can celebrate a winning season today after the Miners defeated New Mexico Lobos here 13-12 yesterday in a Western Athletic Conference game.

The Miners and Lobos played a doubleheader today. Regardless of the outcome, UTEP will have a winning overall season. Going into today's twin-bill they were 26-22-1 for the season and 3-13 in WAC play.

MIKE RIMA was the winner for the Miners yesterday. He relieved David Jannusch in the sixth, and struck out Bartell of the Lobos in the ninth with the tying run on base.

"They were all heroes," said Cohen of his team. "We kept coming back in the game. Keith Dwinell, who hit a 410-foot homer, Bob Alsup, who had four hits, Jim Bradford, Bill Roberts and Rusty Kennedy were really good with the bat."

Roberts drove in the winning run for the Miners in the ninth, Dwinell led off with a double and scored on Bradford's single. Roberts' single scored Bradford from second.

IT WAS THE Miners' first winning season since 1970 and their first win over New Mexico this season.

New Mexico, now 30-20 overall and 5-11 in the WAC, used five pitchers.

The game pitted the Rima brothers against each other. Randy Rima was at first base for New Mexico. He did not come to bat against Mike Rima, the Miner pitcher.
