

Indians Open Exhibition Season Here March 25

Indianapolis, American association champion and junior world series winner, will open its Hollywood exhibition schedule March 25 against Buffalo at Dowdy field.

The Andy Cohen-managed team will play a tentative 19-game slate.

Seven home games are listed, including clashes with Kansas City B team April 2 and 6.

The Triple A exhibition season will close here April 13 with a clash with Toronto. All home games will start at 1:30 p.m.

Twenty - five pitchers and catchers of Indianapolis will report Tuesday to start the White Sox farm season here. The remainder of the team is due March 17.

The Indians will be the only team in training here during March.

Four other White Sox farms, Davenport, Duluth - Superior, Dubuque, and Colorado Springs, will report in early April.

Cohen and "Donie" Bush, Indianapolis president, are due here Sunday to look over Dowdy field facilities.

First Practice

Other club officials, Johnny

Hutchings, coach; Ray Johnstone, general manager; Robert E. Kirby, vice president; and Frank E. McKinney, board chairman, will arrive here for the first practice sessions.

The Indians replaced the Memphis Chicks as the top White Sox farm club. The Indians were formerly in the Cleveland Indian chain.
