

Hollywood's triple A baseball season will get underway tomorrow.

The first wave of one of the best teams in minor league baseball will start work at Dowdy field at 11 a.m.

Four catchers and 20 pitchers of the Indianapolis Indians will receive equipment at 10 a.m.

Andy Cohen, new Indianapolis manager, and Hugh Mulcahy, camp director, arrived here yesterday and will arrange daily training schedules today.

Indianapolis, winner of the American association pennant, association play off against Denver, and winner of the little world series against Rochester of the International league, will open its exhibition schedule at Dowdy field March 25.

Infielders and outfielders are due to report March 17.

First Of Several

The Indians are the first of several White Sox farm clubs to report here.

Davenport, Class B. Three-I league, will start training April 5, Duluth-Superior, Class C Northern loop, April 24; Dubuque, Class D Midwest league, April 8; Colorado Springs, April 1.

Although several top Indianapolis players, including pitchers Glen Rosenbaum, Roger Howard, and Barry Latman, and catcher Sam Hairston, are training with the White Sox, several fine caliber batterymen will report tomorrow.

Gene Martin will handle most of the catching duties with assistance from Charley Schaffernoth and Camile Carreon.

Top pitchers include Dick Atkinson, Jim Atkins, and Paul Stuffer.

Owen (Donie) Bush, Indianapolis president, was here last week to make final arrangements and Ray Johnston, general manager, is due in today.

Bush expressed great satisfaction with Dowdy field facilities.

Cadets Battle Central Tuesday

Riverside Military academy's baseball team will be host to Central Catholic twice this week at Dowdy field.

The Cadets will play the Fort Lauderdale school tomorrow and Friday at 3 p.m.

Riverside opened its season Thursday by downing Coral Shores High school of Tavienier 16-7.

Eddie Spence had two doubles and a triple and Larry Shewmaker drove in three runs to pace the Riverside attack.
