

Sports Get Top Billing

Sports will get top billing in this year's Fiesta Tropicale—March 23-31.

Eleven events, ranging from two mighty $100,000 races at Gulfstream Park to a blind bogey tournament at Orange Brook, will be contested.

Top national publicity getters will be the Gulfstream handicap March 23, and the Florida Derby March 29.

The first annual Men's International Four-Ball tournament March 26-29 at Orange Brook will draw the best amateur golfers in the country.

The tourney, sponsored by the Hollywood Men's Golf association, will be conducted each year at Fiesta time.

Baseball will also contribute to the week's sports program. The Indianapolis Indians, Triple A champions training in Hollywood, will play two exhibition games.

Andy Cohen's Indians will meet Buffalo March 25 and 27 at Dowdy field.

The Hollywood Archery club will hold its annual Fiesta Invitational tourney March 31 at Greenacres range. Seventy of South Florida's top shooters will take part.

The first annual Fiesta Sailing Regatta is set for March 31 under the direction of the Hollywood Sailing club.

The Hollywood Kennel club will honor the week with a night March 28
