

Indianapolis will get its toughest test of the exhibition season Saturday in a Dowdy field clash here with Kansas City's top team.

Lou Boudreau will bring his first team to take on the Indians.

Kansas City, smarting from a 3-2 defeat the Indians handed its B team Tuesday, will go all out for the win. Game time is 2 p.m.

Andy Cohen's Indians are playing Miami at Stuart today and tomorrow will clash with Buffalo at Pompano Beach.

Dowdy field is busy today with a Colorado Springs-Buffalo clash.

Yesterday, Indianapolis won its seventh victory of the spring season with a 1-0 decision over Colorado Springs.

Monday, the Indians were whipped by Buffalo, 8-3. Indianapolis has a 7-2 exhibition record.

The Indians only managed four hits off the Sky Sox pitching of Tom Richards and Bob Lowe.

Winning blow was an inside the park homer by Dick DiTusa in seventh inning.

"This rookie is after your position, Pete. So maybe we oughta say good-by now!"
