

Phil Coach Victim Of First Mistake

(Times Bureau)

CLEARWATER — “The first guy who makes a mistake gets fined $25,” quipped veteran Coach Andy Cohen as the Philadelphia Phillies got ready in their dressing room yesterday for the opening spring exhibition game against Milwaukee.

Somebody snickered and Cohen soon realized why. He'd donned his solid grey uniform while everybody else had on the Phils' white suit with red pin stripes.

Cohen, somewhat red-faced, beat a hasty retreat to his locker and changed into the proper attire.
