

PHILLIES FACE PIRATES TODAY AT FORT MYERS

TIMES BUREAU

CLEARWATER — The Philadelphia Phillies travel to Fort Myers today for an "A" squad game against the Pittsburgh Pirates at 1:30 p.m. Jack Meyer, Henry Mason and Humberto Robinson will hurl for the Phils.

Yesterday at Jack Russell Stadium the Philadelphia "B" team, directed by Coach Andy Cohen, scored a 10th inning run without benefit of a base hit to nip the Milwaukee Braves, 2-1.

Phils' catcher Tom Shollin reached base and finally third on two infield errors, then scored the winning run when a double play attempt on Gary Reimer's grounder was too late at first.

Next home game for Philadelphia is Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. against the homer-happy Washington Senators. Ruben Gomez, who got credit for the "B" win yesterday, Taylor Phillips and Dallas Green are the listed pitchers for that game.

Yesterday Phils' General Manager John Quinn announced that Ted Lepcio, infielder obtained from Detroit but a holdout this spring, was coming to Clearwater to discuss terms.
