Philadelphia Downs Braves

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Philadelphia Phillies, who made manager Eddie Sawyer so tired of baseball he up and quit, defeated Milwaukee Braves 5-4 in their home opener Thursday night on shortstop Joe Koppe's 10th inning run-scoring single.

Acting manager Andy Cohen won a battle of strategy 'with Milwaukee's presiding genius, Charley Dressen, in the Phillies' winning 10th, and may go down as baseball's only unbeaten manager, since he'll be relieved by new skipper Gene Mauch today.

Outfielder Bobby Del Greco walked to open the extra inning. Del Greco, whose home run helped bring the Phillies from behind in the sixth, stole second. After catcher Jim Coker flied out, the brain work began.

Cohen sent Ted Lepcio, a right hand hitter to bat for winning pitcher Don Cardwell against southpaw reliever Juan Pizarro. Dressen countered with pitcher Bob Giggie, a right hander, and Cohen then subbed John Callison, a left hand swinger for Lepcio. Callison was walked intentionally. Koppe, who had struck out three previous times and was hitless, singled off shortstop Johnny Logan's glove scoring Del Greco with the winning run.

Juan Pizarro was the loser.
