

Andy Cohen, Ex-Giants Player, Is Named Indianapolis Manager

A Clear Path

Seccina High School's Mike Sullivan had good downfield blocking for this 11-yard gain last night in the Crusaders' 14-6 victory over Sacred Heart. Three Spartans finally stopped the hard-running Sullivan.—The News Photo, George Tilford.

Fumbled Punt, Intercepted Pass Give Seccina Victory

A fumbled punt and a pass interception paved the way for Seccina High School's ninth football victory in 10 starts last night at CYO Stadium.

Seccina had unexpected trouble downing Sacred Heart, a team that had won only four of nine previous games. The final count was 14-6 but Sec-there, Larry Johnson doing the work.

Sacred Heart struck back with a fine kickoff return, from the Sacred Heart 18 to the Seccina 32, by Rocky Bova. Speth passed to Mickey Seal from 13 yards out for the tally.

It was a 7-6 ball game and umph. More important to the Red Streaks, a victory will finish Wiley with a 9-0 record and a spot alongside the state's two other unbeaten clubs—Connorsville and Richmond—which finished last week.

Wiley is working on an 11-game streak covering two seasons. It won 8 of 9 last year,

Farrell Passes to Await Majors' Call

By LESTER KOELLING

The new manager of the Indianapolis Indians is Andy Cohen, 52, former major and minor league infielder. For the last two years he managed the New Orleans Pelicans.

The rather surprising appointment of Cohen was announced today by Tribe President Ownie Bush in agreement with the Chicago White Sox, with whom the Indians will have a working agreement next year. Bush said that the White Sox have been trying to get Cohen into their organization for several years.

Cohen, who played second base for Minneapolis when Bush managed the Millers in 1932-38, finished fifth at New Orleans last season and sixth the year before. But in seven previous years, at Eau Claire in the Class D Northern League, and at Denver, then in the Class A Western League, he finished first three times, second three times and third once.

FARRELL IS LEFT 'OUT IN THE COLD'

Appointment of Cohen for one year to the Indianapolis helm leaves Kerby Farrell, for the past three years the Indianapolis manager, out in the "cold." But it was Kerby's own choosing.

Farrell, at his home in Henderson, Tenn., said, "I've gone along this far and I'm going to have to hang on. Don't worry about me. I'll have a job next year. I would have liked to return to Indianapolis but I know that Bush can't wait on me any longer."

It is believed that if Farrell doesn't get the Cleveland job, he will be named to manage San Diego, which replaced Indianapolis in the Cleveland axis of farm clubs. Farrell gave Indianapolis two pennants in three years and could have returned here next year had he so desired. But Kerby's heart is set on a major league job and he waived the Indianapolis offer to wait for a call from above.

The personable Cohen, who is as much at home behind the speakers' table and before TV cameras as he is on the ball field, will be unable to come to Indianapolis until some time in February. He's leaving from his mother's home in El Paso, Tex., Saturday, for the Canal Zone to manage a team in the Pan American winter league.

But Cohen promised Bush that he would do everything possible to be relieved of that commitment which was made long before the Indianapolis job came into the picture. His wife and three children—two girls and a boy—will make the trip with him.

The new Indianapolis man-

ANDY COHEN

White Sox Wanted Him

ager played for the New York Giants in 1926-29 before going to Minneapolis. After a three-year hitch in the Army, Cohen came back to baseball as part owner of the El Paso club in 1945.

During his playing days in the American Association, Cohen was the league's top fielding second baseman in 1933-37-38 and although not a distance hitter, was a feared batter in the clutch. He lives in Elmira, N.Y.

"We went along as far as we could with Kerby," said Bush, "and we just couldn't wait any longer. We had to have a manager."

Biggest Wrestler at Armory Tonight

The world's biggest wrestler will display his wares in the Armory ring tonight when Paul Bunyan, the 8-foot 2-inch "Washington Giant," meets Duke DeMetri, of Athens, Greece.

At 220 pounds DeMetri will be at a 190-pound disadvantage. In matches to be telecast over WTTV, starting at 10:15 p.m. (CDT), Wilbur Snyder will tackle Bill Melby and Angelo Poffo will meet young Seymoue Koenig.

Olymps Ready for Rest, Games

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Coach Gerald Tucker of the United States Olympic basketball squad pronounces his team ready for the games in Australia, but somewhat fatigued from nine tuneup contests.

Undefeated, the Olympians wind up the schedule at Long Beach, Cal., tomorrow night before emplaning for Australia. Last night they beat an all-star