

Indianapolis hockey team is a youthful aggregation. Average age of the 15 players is 24 years and 10 months; average weight 174; average height, in spite of 5.8 and 5.6 entries, is 5.11 . . . Oddly enough, not one man on the team weighs as much as 190 . . . Don't worry about winning being imperative to financial success in college football—the Wisconsin-Northwestern game was a 53,250 sellout today . . . Andy Cohen, new manager of the Indianapolis Indians, is a good man at the banquet table . . .

“Winning High School Basketball,” by Jay McCreary of Muncie, is just off The Prentice Hall Co. presses.
