

salesman and farm operator now.

* * *

MRS. JOHN G. MANCOS, the former Peggy Stonehouse of this city, is the new president of the Women's District of Columbia Golf Association. She plays golf from the Belle Haven C.C. in Alexandria, Va., and has been chairman of golf for four years there. There are 15 clubs in the District and they play 22 tournaments a year . . . Our baseball officials heard nothing but congratulations and fine reports on the acquisition of Andy Cohen as manager of the home owned Indians for 1957 . . . Charles (Chick) Evans Jr. hopes to play in 50 Amateur Championships of the USGA. He almost broke his string this year when an