

COHEN AT SPORTS SHOW

Andy Cohen, new manager of the Indianapolis Indians, is scheduled to make his first public appearance here tonight at the sports show in the Coliseum. He will be introduced during the stage show, starting at 8 o'clock. Later, he will greet fans from the Indians' booth.

Cohen and Ownie Bush, president of the Indianapolis club, will leave by auto tomorrow for Tampa, Fla., where Andy will help out in the training program of the Chicago White Sox. He will remain there until the Indianapolis camp opens on March 12 at Hollywood, Fla.
