TRIBE'S PITCHING APPEARS BEST

PITCHING APPEARS to be the strongest factor of the Indianapolis Indians, who will arrive home tomorrow from their spring training base in Hollywood, Fla.

The Tribe staff at present contains five veterans who won a combined total of 57 victories last year in various leagues, and seven youngsters, several of whom are outstanding. It was the pitching, more than the hitting, that enabled the Indians to go into their final exhibition game today with a 11-5 record.

The catching department, as of now, leaves something to be desired, but improvement is in the immediate offing. Here is the background and an analysis of those pitchers and catchers who will open the season with Indianapolis:

RODOLFO (CHICO) ARIAS

—One of only two left-handers on the staff. Fairly fast with good assortment. A native Cuban, who still lives in that country. Speaks little English. He's 25 years old and posted a 8-5 record at Colorado Springs last year. May be used in relief only.

ARNIE ATKINS — Veteran righthander with a variety of pitches, specializing in the curve ball. Not too fast, but good control. Has won 98 games in last six years. Owned by Indianapolis club and was 13-6 at San Diego last year. Thirty years old, married and has two children. Lives in Muscatine, Ia.

JOE DAHLKE—Mainly a reliever who specializes in a sinking fast ball. Not in top condition due to only five innings of work with White Sox at Tampa and three with Indians at Hollywood. Won 19 games in relief for Memphis in 1955 and led league with 1.85 earned-run average. Was 5-5 with same club last year. He's 26 and lives in Wasau, Wis.

BILL DuFOUR — Another question mark due to inactivity this spring. Posted marks of 11-9 and 10-10 with Memphis last two years after coming out of service. He's 25 years old and lives in Wyandotte, Mich.

BARRY LATMAN—The sensation of the spring pitching season. Throws harder than anyone on staff with fast ball his best pitch. In 22 innings this spring, has given up only 2 earned runs and fanned 19. Only 20 years old and was 14-14 at Memphis last year, but was third best in league in ERA. Has fine strikeout record. Lives in Los Angeles.

AL PAPAI — The "grandpappy" of the staff at 37. Deals strictly in "butterfly" pitches, particularly the knuckler. Won 20 games for Memphis last season and is starting his 18th year in baseball. Good control and works fast with little or no windup. Lives in Divernon, Ill. Owned by Indians, Inc.

TONY PONCE — Another tormentor who specializes in slow stuff. Also good control, works fast, and owned by Indianapolis club. Started with Louisville last year and was 8-7 before being sold to Miami. Beginning 15th year. He's 35 and lives in Lakewood, Cal.

GLEN ROSENBAUM—A 20-year-old righthander from Union Mills, Ind., who was 15-5 at Waterloo (Class B) last year. Not too fast, but has good curve ball and change of pace. In only two years of pro ball has won 30 and lost 8. Impressive strikeout record.

DON RUDOLPH—The other southpaw on staff. Hasn't had much work this spring, but in brief outings showed fine curve and fair speed. Record indicates excellent control. Led Memphis club last year in ERA with 3.19 while winning 11 and losing 10. He's 25, married and lives in Baltimore.

ED SZYCZEWSKI—The Chicago boy Manager Andy Cohen described as "the baby-faced youngster with a cruel heart." Highly impressive in Tribe games with a bristling fast ball. Needs to improve curve and change-up.

GEORGE SPENCER—One of two holdovers from 1956 triple champions. Reported late, but is near top condition. Should improve on his last year's record of 5-4 in relief.

CHARLES BICKNELL—Another veteran who knows how to pitch, but has had only limited work with Indians. Obtained in trade with Atlanta. Spent several years in A.A. with Toledo and Wichita.

JOHN ROMANO—One of two catchers, who bats right-handed. Good hitter with plenty of power, but not a polished receiver. Batted .295 and .241 at Memphis and Vancouver last year with 14 homers. He's 22, married and lives in Hoboken, N.J.

SAM HAIRSTON — Good mechanical receiver, but not a feared batsman. Has spent most of pro years at Colorado Springs where he batted .318 last year. Hit .264 with Charleston in 1954. Bats right-handed and not too fast on bases. Once played with Indianapolis Clowns and lives in Birmingham.
