'JUST NOT THAT BAD'

Cohen Says Tribe Can Hit Better Than It's Shown

By LESTER KOELLING

Manager Andy Cohen feels sure that the Indianapolis Indians are a better hitting club than shown in the first two games of the American Association season.

"We're just not that bad," commented Cohen, referring to the Tribe's six hitless and runless innings in the opener, and last night's seven singles and a towering homer by Ron Jackson in a 6-2 loss to St. Paul.

Koelling

"Maybe we need to relax a bit more," added Cohen. "Anyway, we're going to have a long batting drill tomorrow.

"The other night Stu Miller outsmarted our hitters," continued Andy, "and tonight that fellow (Stan Williams) overpowered us."

Oddly, "that fellow" to whom Cohen referred pitched batting practice for Denver in 1954 when Andy was manager of that club in the Western League.

"Stan's a Denver boy," related Cohen, "and he pitched a lot of batting practice for me. We wanted to sign him, but he was asking for more money than the Denver club thought it could pay. Anyway, that's the last time I saw him until tonight, and I don't care if I never see him again."

Williams was in complete command of last night's game and a couple of fielding "breaks" rescued him from the few really troublesome moments he encountered. In the very first inning, Granny Gladstone's perfect peg from right nipped Vince Garcia trying to score from second on Jim Delsing's single.

In the third, Don Prohovich's intended sacrifice bunt, that stopped less than a foot from the plate, resulted in a double play. But on a few other occasions, when the Indians posed mild threats, Williams assumed personal charge with the strikeout pitch. In all, he fanned 10, hiking the Tribe's strikeout total to 17 in 15 innings.

A lineup change tonight in the series windup with the Saints, free to kids 14 and under, will find Jose Valdivielso operating at shortstop. The infielder optioned from Washington arrived shortly after last night's game started.

"He was sent here to play short for us, so why wait?", said Cohen. "I may take Don (Prohovich) out for a few days to let him get settled. The boy seems nervous and too anxious. But that's typical of youngsters. He'll be all right once he settles down.

"I'm in no mood for telling jokes," continued Andy, "but I'm reminded of a pitcher I had several years ago. He was wild as the dickens and I went out to the mound for a little talk to settle him down.

"'It's no different here than it was at Madisonville,' I said. 'You got the ball over down there didn't you?' And he came right back with 'Hell, no'."

Although the Saints could do no better than match the Tribe's total of eight hits, they had the power and the punch with runners on base. Don Demeter, the Texas League home run king last year with 41, drove in three tallies with a homer and double, and Dixie Howell, veteran catcher, sent over two runs with a two-bagger.

Demeter's two-run homer in the sixth terminated Al Papai's first start for the Indians, and the mopup was left to Hoosier Glen Rosenbaum and Bill DuFour. The latter two yielded three runs and three hits in four full innings.

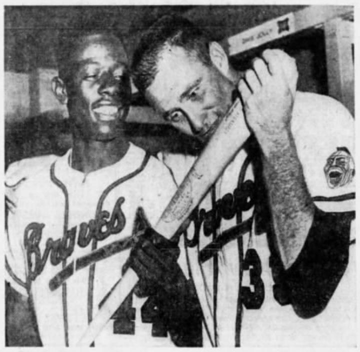
It's My Best Pitch, but I Don't Throw It: Burdette's Answer



That Mouth Again

MILWAUKEE—Lew Burdette, Milwaukee pitcher again the center of a spitball controversy, is shown applying a little moisture to the bat of teammate Henry Aaron after yesterday's game. Aaron's sixth-inning homer over the center-field fence gave Burdette a 1-0 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs.—AP Wirephoto.

Tebbetts Calls Lew 'Cheating Spitter'

By Associated Press

Here we go again.

Lew Burdette says he doesn't throw a spitter. Birdie Tebbetts insists he does. "A cheating spitballer," says the Cincinnati manager of Burdette. But Warren Giles says, "You have to prove it to me."

Whatever Burdette, Milwaukee's shutout ace, does when he spins his stuff for the Braves, old Satch Paige had a term for—"out-psychologizin' the hitter."

That's what Burdette had in mind when he said "it's the best pitch I've got— and I don't throw it," in reply to Tebbetts' renewed cry after the Redlegs lost to the big right-hander, 1-0, yesterday. It was the eighth successive time Burdette, who led the National League with six shutouts midst similar "spitter" charges last season, has whipped Cincinnati and Tebbetts is "pretty tired of him getting away with murder."

Birdie, who insists Burdette "went to his mouth before every pitch," chirped so loud his boss, General Manager Gabe Paul, decided to lodge an official protest today and ask Giles, the league president, for a clarification of rule 8:02, which states a pitcher can not "apply a foreign substance of any kind to the ball" under penalty of a 10-day suspension.

"Until the umpires or someone else presents evidence that Burdette is using the spitter, I'll do nothing about it," said Giles, adding that "a lot of pitchers make a hitter think they're throwing a spitter, but there's nothing illegal about it."

Legal or not, Burdette's victory, fashioned on Hank Aaron's first home run of the year in the sixth inning off Hal Jeffcoat, handed the winless Redlegs a second defeat and left the Braves and Brooklyn Dodgers the only unbeaten clubs in the league.

The Dodgers, with Sal Maglie throwing a four-hitter, knocked off Pittsburgh 6-1. The Chicago Cubs cracked 15 hits to defeat the St. Louis Cardinals, 10-2. And the New York Giants kept Philadelphia winless, 6-2.

Maglie, who will be 40 a week from today, struck out five, walked three while gaining a 23-5 lifetime record against the Pirates in his 200th major league start. The lone Pirate run was unearned. Duke Snider, the N.L.'s defending home run king, smacked his first of the year and Hoosier Gil Hodges hit his second for the Brooks, who cracked southpaw Luis Arroyo and three relievers for 14 hits.

Young Moe Drabowsky, the Cubs' bonus right-hander, permitted just four hits in whipping the Cards, who packed three of them in a row into the fifth inning for their two runs. Gene Baker led the assault on Murry Dickson and four Card relief pitchers, driving in four runs with a triple, double and single. Stan Musial, his back in shape, played his 116th consecutive game, but was hitless.

Ruben Gomez, backed up by Hank Sauer's 250th home run, and a three-run homer by Gail Harris, beat the Phils and Curt Simmons with an eight-hitter.

Sol Out; Marks Down; Boys Run; None Drown

By CORKY LAMM

It's up to the Weatherman and a flock of relays tomorrow to get Indiana's high school trackmen out of the mud flats.

Until yesterday, the Weatherman was winning. Tomorrow it may be the boys. Relays are scheduled at Culver, Ft. Wayne, Goshen, Hammond, Marion and Muncie.

Lamm

Shortridge, no threat this time around, will be in the 21st Muncie Relays, along with other Class A powers like Central's hosts, Richmond, Anderson, Columbus, Kokomo, New Castle and Gerstmeyer of Terre Haute.

The sprints at Muncie could be interesting. Bill Satterfield, Richmond's long fellow and state double sprint champion, will be in the 100. Yesterday he rewrote the season's best with a :10.0 against Anderson. There is no 220 in the Muncie meet, but the track is the same where last season Satterfield got off a 21.1 furlong, pushed a bit by a helping wind.

Satterfield wasn't the only active one yesterday. Mike Johnson of Anderson, cochamp in the state pole vault last spring, pushed the season's ceiling to 12.10¾. Ron Nelson of Hammond did 12.10 Tuesday. Bobby Orrill of Madison won't be at Muncie, but he's a hard one to catch. He lowered his own 440-yard best to :51.3 earlier this week and yesterday took a crack at 220 yards, winning in :22.0. That's the best yet.

In local skirmishing, Jack Burgan of Howe came through four events—a 21.4 broad jump, :16.2 in the high hurdles, :22.0 in the lows and a :10.8 hundred — against Southport. Burgan and Irv Cross of Hammond are the only 22-foot broad jumpers to date . . . At Tech, Larry Carter had :10.4 and :22.9 in the sprints, Rein Leetmae :15.5 and :21.2 in the hurdles and Ronnie Rushton climbed up to 50.6 in the shot—all for Tech. But Ripple, though buried, produced the area's best half-miler to date in Steve Frame (2:05.7) and the city's best at 440 in John Kingdon (:53.0.). And the Rocket half-mile relay team chased Tech to a 1:34.4 triumph, decided by one step. Ripple did 1:34.6.

* * *

New Albany has some jumpers Tom Hutchinson, a sophomore, did 6.1 for a new high jump record in the New Albany Relays. Best previous jump was 5.10. And Weldon Mitchel, a senior, got another new mark with 21.5½ in the broad jump. Jerry Harrison, a teammate, won high hurdles in :15.8 and the New Albany 880 gang came home first in 1:36.0

. . . Art DeBow of Gerstmeyer was clocked in :50.7 for 440 yards of a sprint medley in the Attica Relays . . . Leroy Johnson of Mishawaka, best ever (6.6¾) in the high jump, has ankled the quarter in :52.7 this season . . . Ken Stewart of Mt. Vernon did :51.9 Monday and Coach Jim Baxter thinks he'll improve by least a second . . . Sylvester Coalmon, the sophomore sensation of South Bend's undefeated basket champs, is the only other besides Johnson and Hutchinson to better 6 feet in the high jump.

* * *

Tom Seifert, North Side Ft. Wayne junior (and 230-pounder), has a meet shot mark of 53.1, best in the state, and has been doing 53 and 54 feet in practice, according to his coach, Rolla P. Chambers. He ". . . should get up to 55, perhaps even 56, before this season is over," says Rollie.

RUSS LASH, Howe junior and son of former I.U. distance ace Don Lash, yesterday came up with the city's best mile of the season, a 4:39 performance against Southport.

Lafayette Third, IAC Out in AAU Women's Indoor Swim

By Associated Press

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal.—Defending champion Lafayette (Ind.) Swim Club finished third and, for the first time in many years, the Indianapolis Athletic Club failed to place in the top 10 in the National AAU women's indoor swimming and diving championships which closed here last night.

Two California clubs dominated the event in team standings, won by the Santa Clara Swim Club with 59 points. Kris Kristensen Swim Club of Sherman Oaks was second with 52, and Lafayette had 46 points. The always rugged Walter Reed Club of Washington, finished fifth with 23 points.

Paula Jean Myers won the 3-meter diving title and four records in four events fell last night. Miss Myers, representing the Indian Springs Aquatic Club, Montrose, Cal., placed ahead of Olympic star Jeanne Stunyo of Gary, Ind., and Barbara Gilders, both of the Detroit Athletic Club.

Setting records:

Nancy Ramey of Washington Athletic Club, Seattle, Wash., stroked 1:01.9 in the 100-yard butterfly final after blazing 1:02.9 in a qualifying heat. Both marks topped the world record of 1:04.1 set by Olympic winner Shelley Mann.

Carin Cone, unattached, Ridgewood, N.J., turned in a qualifying heat of 1:05.1 and then returned to swim 1:03.9 in the 100-yard backstroke finals. This bettered the world mark of 1:04.6 set in 1950 by G. Wielma of Holland; the American record of 1:04.8 turned in by Maureen Murphy, Portland, Ore., last August, and the National Indoor meet mark of 1:06.4, set by Miss ann in 1954.

Chris Von Saltza, Santa ara Swim Club, was clocked 2:42.9 in the 250-yard free style, topping the previous American and indoor meet record of 2:45.4 set by Dougie Gray of the Walter Reed Club last year. Beth Whittall of Lafayette was third.

Santa Clara took top honors in the 400-yard medley relay in the time of 4:27.2, breaking the previous meet record of 4:27.4 recorded by the Walter Reed in 1956.

Happy Birthday!

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal.—This business of breaking swimming records is old hat to Carin Cone of Ridgewood, N.J. But it was something special last night in the National AAU women's indoor championships. Carin celebrated her 17th birthday by breaking the world record for the 100-yard backstroke. Her time of 1:03.8 was eight-tenths of a second better than that turned in by a Dutch girl in 1950.—AP Wirephoto.
