Sawyer Decision To 'Quit' Shocks Phillies Fandom

Associated Press Sports Writer PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies' decision to let Ed Sawyer go after one year of managing because he was "not doing it" shocked the fans.

Phillies' owner Bob Carpenter and General Manager John Quinn said they were shocked over Sawyer's decision to be managed if he wanted to "quit."

"I'm disappointed," Edlin commented. "Carpenter who brought Sawyer back in mid-season of 1958, for his second term as manager. Carpenter at that time expressed the hope Sawyer could take the youngsters budding in the Phillies' farm system and develop them into a permanent win-win team."

Sawyer was named manager in the late 1950s.

Owner Shocked

"I just don't care to manage a major league club, or any club," Sawyer said Thursday in giving up one of the 18 covered major league franchises.

Phillies' owner Bob Carpenter and General Manager John Quinn said they were shocked over Sawyer's decision to be managed if he wanted to "quit."

Sawyer On Spot

It has long been speculated that although Quinn and Sawyer were good friends, the general manager was not Quinn's first choice to manage the Phillies.

It has been felt that Quinn would have preferred to have a younger man to manage the team.

Sawyer was named manager in the late 1950s.

Dodgers Continue To Win One-Run Games

Associated Press Sports Writer LOS ANGELES (AP) — Los Angeles Dodgers so far have proved a formidable team in a world championship club, but they have not yet proved to be a team that can win one-run games.

They have been off in all but their first three games, yet have won two of them — the latest a 1-0 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals.

"I don't mind saying I'm disappointed," Manager Walter Alston said Thursday night after the Dodgers dropped their first game in a series against the Cardinals.

"I'm pretty well pleased with the pitching," Alston said, "but the hitting has been awful."

West Snyder Wins Fourth In Row

Combination of sophomore right hander Mark Zechman's five-hit performance and a nine-run ninth inning explosion secured the win for West Snyder over the High in a 7-0 Valley League game played on the winner's diamond at Beaverdam Thursday night.

State's Trout Fishermen Await Inaugural Tomorrow

HAVERSBURG (AP) — Nearly 100,000 trout fishermen are expected to flock to Pennsylvania's trout season at 5 a.m. Saturday.

"With the weather and stream conditions so nearly perfect I have every reason to expect a big turnout of trout fishermen," said John H. Hinkle Jr., president of the State Fish Commission.

Summer-like weather, fair and warm, is expected through Saturday.

"If this weather holds it would seem reasonable to expect that a very trout fisherman who has license will be on a stream some time over the weekend," Hinkle said.

However, he said there was no estimate of the number of trout fishermen who would be on the water.

Hinkle said all but a few of the 147 miles of state trout streams have been stocked with fish.

"We will develop our present stocking schedule within 10 to 15 days," he added.

Conditions excellent. Stream temperatures and water conditions are generally excellent in the southeastern section of the state, according to Robert Bickel, district fishery manager.

"Saturday should be warm and windy, with the chance of some scattered showers and thunderstorms," the Fish Commission's Bureau forecaster at Harrisburg said.

"Saturday morning's forecast should be 65-85 at sunrise and 70-85 at sunset," he added.

Following the meeting the afternoon sampling bottles were taken by members present: Dick Haven, Williamsport, South Williamsport, Milton, West Deer and Sunbury, where they will be put to use by the boat owners as a guide to river patterns.

Vigilantes Get Test Bottles For Pollution Patrol

William Britain, law enforcement officer of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission, met with the newly formed West Branch Vigilantes river patrol at the Elks home in Milton Thursday evening.

He delivered six cases of sterilized water sampling bottles along with instructions as to how to collect information on pollution and fish kills that would stand up in court when required.

He welcomed the assistance of the Vigilantes when he talked to the Minute Men of Revolutionary War days. He said he thought of the Minute Men when he saw the Vigilantes when he talked to the Minute Men of Revolutionary War days.
