Andy Cohen Waited Long Time For A Job That Lasted One Day

It was short and sweet for interim Manager Andy Cohen of the Phillies, who comes down from cloud nine today and goes back to the coaching line again.

Cohen waited 30 years for a crack at a major league managing job and when he finally got it, through a strange combination of circumstances, he certainly made the most of it.

Out-slicking Charlie Dressen, he led Philadelphia to a 10-inning, 5-4 victory over Milwaukee Thursday night and if nothing else, Cohen can always say he "retired" as the most successful manager in Phillies' history.

A McGraw Man

In case you've never heard of Cohen, he's the same fellow John McGraw dug up to play second base for the Giants in 1924 when McGraw wanted to give New York fans their first look at a Jewish ball player. Now 55, Cohen was hired as a coach by the Phils this year and was delegated to lead the club Thursday night a few hours after Eddie Sawyer suddenly quit as manager.

Cohen knew he was simply a stop-gap until Gene Mauch, the Phillies' new pilot, could join the club from Florida. But he did a job that would have made McGraw proud.

The Braves jumped in front with three runs in the first inning when Hank Aaron slammed a two-run homer and Joe Adcock followed with a solo blast. But the Phils battled back and tied the score at 4-4.

Bobby Del Greco, who had homered earlier, walked to open the 10th and stole second. Jim Coker flied out and Cohen then sent up Ted Lepcio to hit for pitcher Don Cardwell, whose homer tied the score in the sixth. Dressen countered by bringing in Bob Giggie to relieve Juan Pizarro.

Dark Collects 2,000th

Not to be out-done, Cohen replaced Lepcio with left-handed hitting John Callison, who was purposely passed. After all that master-minding, Joe Koppe singled home the winning run. Alvin Dark of the Phils collected his 2,000th hit when he singled during a three-run sixth.

The Dodgers handed the Cardinals their third straight loss, 3-2; the Cubs inflicted the first defeat of the season upon the Giants, 6-5, and the Pirates crushed the Reds, 13-0.

Gil Hodges drove in the tying run for the Dodgers with a triple in the ninth and then scored the winning one on Bob Duliba's wild pitch. Ken Boyer and Duke Snider each hit homers. Ed Roebuck relieved starter Johnny Podres in the eighth and was the winner. Duliba, the Cards' fourth pitcher, was the loser.

A wind-blown-pop-fly double by Frank Thomas in the ninth scored Bob Will with the winning run for the Cubs after the Giants had tied the score at 5-5 on Willie McCovey's three-run homer in the eighth. Orlando Cepeda and Willie Kirkland also hit homers for the Giants while Ernie Banks hit the eighth grand slam of his career for the Cubs. Don Elston was the winner and Billy O'Dell the loser.

Pirates Crush Reds

Vern Law limited the Reds to seven hits while his Pirate teammates clubbed loser Cal McLish and four relievers for 11 safeties in Pittsburgh's home opener. Roberto Clemente drove in five runs with a pair of doubles, a single and a sacrifice fly, and Bill Mazeroski accounted for four more with a double and a homer.

The game marked McLish's return to the National League, which he left in 1949 and came back to this season after winning 19 games for the Cleveland Indians last year.

The American League still is playing exhibition games.

Baltimore defeated Kansas

City, 3-0; Detroit decided Washington, 8-3; Cleveland topped Boston, 5-1, and New York beat its Richmond farmhands, 15-10.
