

ed Thursday that Andy Cohen had been fired as manager of that city's American Association baseball club.

(The Rocky Mountain News also said the New York Yankees were terminating their full working agreement with the Denver team. Bob Howsam, president and general manager of the Bears, refused to comment on the report.)

One report was that Johnny Pesky, former coach and utility player for the Bears, might return as manager in 1959. . . .