U. S. Offers New Plan To Support Israel Demands

Dulles Outlines
Idea To Israeli Ambassador

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The United States has offered a new plan to break the deadlock over Israel's refusal to withdraw from the Gaza Strip and the Golan Heights.

Under the plan the U. S. would publicly support Israel's demand that Israeli ships have free passage in the Gulf of Aden.

The U. S. also is ready to support Israel's insistence that the Gaza Strip not again be used as a base for Egyptian guerrillas.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles outlined this plan Monday to Israeli Ambassador Eliahu Eshel, and said the U. S. was ready to make the position known in a public declaration.

The declaration says short of being a guarantee since there have been no threat of action in the East, that the U. S. will not make any public statement until the U. S. has consulted with the government.

A reply is expected in the next day or two.

Meanwhile, the Arab-Asian bloc agreed to postpone for two to three days the debate originally scheduled in the United Nations General Assembly on the possible sanctions against Israel.

Dulles is working with UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld in attempting to find an answer to Israel's refusal to withdraw from the Gaza Strip and the Golan Heights.

The U. S. is counting on its traditional friendship with Israel and the increased prestige it has in the Arab world as a result of its stand in the UN against Israel, Britain and France for their attack on Egypt.

The administration under-tank and sympathizers with Israel's position that there is no possibility of giving up the strategic territory it holds if it is to be free again.

Latest Soviet Press Proposal Called "Pure Propaganda"

American officials described a "pure propaganda" Soviet proposal for a UN declaration of preservation of peace in the Middle East.

Diplomats and members of Congress declared that the Soviet proposal for "peaceful coexistence" must be for Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko was declared to be a western position and gave the way for continued infiltration of sub-Arab lands.

Government sources predicted that rejection of the Soviet proposal made in U. S., Britain and France, which would be a UN pledge against further arm shipments to Middle and Near Eastern countries.

It was noted that the six-point plan outlined by the Kremlin was aimed to coincide with the scheduled opening of United Nations debate on the Middle East problem.

The debate was postponed at the last minute, however, to give the U. S. a chance to try to break the deadlock resulting from Israel's refusal to pull her troops out of the Gaza Strip and Golan Heights.

They added that anti-communism must continue as a threat of Soviet aggression exists.

Knownland's Proposals For UN Charters War Wide Approval

Senate GOP Leader William Knowland said powerful Democratic backing in his demand for reform in the United Nations to save the world agency.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) a prominent Foreign Relations committee member and active peace leader, said he agreed with the California that "we need in the UN need to be corrected now if the organization is to carry out duties thrust upon it."

Knowland in a speech at Georgetown university Monday night said five "major defects" and said that unless reformed, and said then could result in the UN "going the way of the League of Nations."

He cited:

1. The failure of the veto power.
2. A growing "double standard" of international morality.
3. The increasing trend to big power domination.
