

ANDY COHEN, popular manager of the Eau Claire Bears in 1948-50, won't be back as 1957 pilot of the New Orleans Pelicans. The Southern Assn. club, which operated in the red as a Pittsburgh affiliate in 1956, has signed a limited agreement with the New York Yankees, who are expected to shift Phil Page to the Pelican helm from Birmingham.

Cohen, who guided Eau Claire to the 1949 pennant and just missed in 1950, is presently managing Chesterfield in the Panama winter league. Andy went from here to Denver, where he stayed until the same Yankees moved in.

Wes Covington, former Eau Claire Braves outfielder, will have as a teammate on the Caguas club in the Puerto Rican League Leon Wagner, the 1955 St. Cloud Rox hitting sensation. Covington played with Milwaukee in 1956 and Wagner clubbed 51 homers and drove in 155 runs for Danville in the Class B Carolina League.
